W. E. HEARST.

162 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK. WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 1896.

Entered in the Post Office in New York as

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

FOR SEASIDE AND COUNTRY. Readers of the Journal going out of town for the Summer can have the Journal mailed to them for forty dresses changed whenever desired.

are not completed. This is the natural Advertiser comments: Mr. Bryan's plans for the campaign quiver, but not without producing a shiver at Canton.

edge of economic questions.

mission, and such restrictions and nity. It will be employing two dollars that he could safely go away and start guarantees in the control of railroads for plant and running expenses to do another Republic elsewhere. Thirty or as will protect the people from robformed on most subjects as Andrew D. after a preliminary trial of strength, that newcomers quickly learn from White would claim that the railroads will inevitably combine on the basis of them the practice of self-government, deprive them of all balance of profit. nize the essentially monopolistic char- more effective because they teach un-Perhaps, however, it is assumed that acter of the service at the start, and consciously, it is impossible for the roads to earn allow the original line to do all the The simplicity and directness with any profits and at the same time protect the people "from robbery and op- will protect its patrons from extortion. solve themselves at Freeville are expression!

two-thirds of the stock and about onesixth of the bonds of the roads are securing no returns. It is significant, however, that under these conditions, statistician of the Interstate Commerce money, the creditor shall not, by con-Commission are at hand, the fiscal year tract, require gold. ending June 30, 1835, it is discovered But do not these critics know that of way, as in very many other sections, dents. The courts will not sustain in the Footprints of The Journal. of way, as in very many other sections, dents. The courts will not sustain the fournal cost the roads almost nothing, engineers estimate that the tracks, depots, The courts of Massachusetts and of in the poor year of 1894-5, was $1,790, or five per cent on $35,800. In the entire country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earnings were equal to five the employer to release him from the country the earning the employer to release the finterest the employer to release the five the employer than the em rallroad management.

of subscribers for The Journal, will reonly upon the money question, with no trace of "dishonesty" about it. quering. Persons desirous of organizing clubs of subscribers for The Journal, will receive fuil information control of the majority of them, without special rates, etc., by addressing "Circulation Department, The Journal, New York."

It is fair, in passing, to remark that in Illinois and some other Western States the courts have taken the opponical results of the square, which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one that the great in which receive from the square, which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one that the great in which receive family hotel, was the one that the great in which receive family hotel, was the one that the great in which receive family hotel, was the one that the great in which receive family hotel, was the one that the great in which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one that the great in which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one that the great in which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one that the great in which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one that the great in which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one that the great in which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one that the great in which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one that the great in which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one that the great in which is now occupied as a family hotel, was the one of the Selleys; but I pre-Sufficiently familiar to be able to patter some presentable phrases, but upon a number of other economic and social topics about which they know absolutely nothing at all. It is rather entertaining in such circumstances to see the courts have taken the opposite to any taken the opposite to some presentable phrases, but upon a number of other economic and social topics about which they know absolutely nothing at all. It is rather entertaining in such circumstances to see the courts have taken the opposition from that above described, and have declared such laws unconstitutional and in violation of public policy. The moral to be drawn from this is that many court decisions on legislative questions are determined by the are not completed. This is the natural result of a candidate not being owned by a syndicate which furnishes readyde plans.

Ex-President Harrison is going to take the stump for the Republican ticket, and will say "gold" without a quiver, but not without producing a divertiser comments:

In other words, this juvenile orator is an advocate of State Socialism in its most complete form. His assertion that a railroad company—an organization formed and meintained for the useful and laudable purpose of transporting passengers and freight—is a "dangerous monopoly," from its very nature, is a revelation of ignorance which breaks this man as unfit, not alone for the Presidency, but for the duties of the humblest legislator.

Experience of State Socialism in its most complete form.

A SCHOOL O. The Journal's particular and producing a series of transporting passengers and freight—is a "dangerous monopoly," from its very nature, is a revelation of ignorance which breaks this man as unfit, not alone for the Junior Republican ticket, and will say "gold" without a quiver, but not without producing a series of the series

It will be observed that as soon as a newspaper goes into the hands of a omy. That the ordinary principles of pression in the organization of picnics the shore of his island home.

Carzon street is situate at the court end receiver its desire for instructing the competition do not work in this field, and half holidays in the country. conducted increases in a wonderful de- regulation is a necessity, is recognized portant and highly original experi- heel was on the neck of France.

sion," no one would done by one. And it will not even se- for three or four years have so clear-

In the July number of the Annals of traordinary. The citizens who underthe American Academy of Political and took to raise chickens began to clamor and oppress, by giving special rates Social Science, which has just come to for protection against importations beillegally and secretly to large shippers, hand, the public nature of the work of fore they had a dozen eggs a day to is well understood. The ablest investigators hold that such changes in our by Interstate Commerce Commissioner nized in a week and reformed in a laws and their enforcement as would Martin A. Knapp. "It follows, there- month. Expulsion-which would be the stop these discriminations would not fore," observes Mr. Knapp, "from the nature and correlative of capital pun-In the slightest degree impair the fundamental office of transportation, ishment—has not once been found necprofits of the roads, though the profits that to provide the highways of travel essary. of some directors, now gained at the and the agencies of inland exchange Professor Jeremiah W. Jenks, head of expense of both stockholder and shiplegitimate, but primary and inherent. Cornell University, is a specialist But is it true that our railroads are To regard these agencies as private whose opinion carries no little weight now making almost nothing? To be property, subject to the rules which among thoughtful men, and the fact sure, they are not making as much as govern the management of other poswhen other business is more prosperous, and to the uninitiated it sounds conception. Upon this point there is pressed by what he saw there is an very bad when it is said that nearly much confusion of thought and a sur- added evidence of the serious value of local newspaper offices.

and with one-fourth of the capital of SACREDNESS OF CONTRACTS. profoundly interesting, but also very valuable from the scientific these roads in the hands of receivers No part of the Chicago platform is point of view. Mr. George is conin 1893-4, the reduction in capitalization more misunderstood than the demand that year was only three-fourths of one for "such legislation as will prevent, to be hoped that the Republic can per cent, or from $63,421 to $62,951 per for the future, the demonetization of be allowed to develop naturally mile. This shows how little of the any kind of legal tender money by priwater is wrung out of these properties vate contract." It is assumed that by the modern "friendly" receivership. law has no right to interfere with this experiment in self-government Let us look a little deeper. In the freedom of contract nor to declare among the children of the poorer folk. last year for which returns from the that, when a debt is to be paid in It invites in the task the aid of all that the roads, as a whole and in al- our courts have repeatedly sanctioned most every section, are earning five laws interfering with freedom of con-ican Anarchists, is not receiving the per cent on much more than the cost tract? Suppose a railroad company, editorial attention it deserves from rolling stock, etc., can be duplicated some other States have held that for under $25,000 a mile. Yet the net where there are laws for the weekly from Chiswick Mall through Kensington, earnings from operation per mile, even payment of wages, or for giving em- and so on to London, is a busy obligations of the law is of no avail. to the world that held so much pain and

Since private business counts itself

These decisions are just. For these pleasure in store for them both. But Russell square, the home of the Sedleys, and Respectively and Business for these days if it can laws, which seem to be a violation of Becky's first stopping place on her journey Business counts itself

These decisions are just. For these sell square, the home of the Sedleys, and Business counts itself

These decisions are just. For these sell square, the home of the Sedleys, and Business counts itself correct recognized and grave abuses of ers' liability laws, unless compelled to, mansions facing the square itself look as if in order to get employment.

It is hard work for McKinley's overworked figures of speech to remain silent while the Republican editors.

There is a prevailing impression to the affect that Mark Hanna is furnishing the money to make the "middle of the rongaters" go at St. Louis.

Mr. Bryan's plans for the campaign.

Mr. Bryan's plans for the campaign.

It is hard work for McKinley's overwork for McKinley's overwork and gures of speech to remain silent work for McKinley's overwork worked figures of speech to remain silent while the Republican editors to foot the proposition of the proposi Upon this citation the Commercial great corporations, that have repeat-

A SCHOOL OF CITIZENSHIP.

these few words of commendation: Especially, we might add, in some Republic, I am convinced that it is an experiment which is not merely

The opposition to free coinage of sil-

Becky Sharp and Amelia.

London, July 12.-The road that leads It is equally certain that the debtor seph Sedley type, and I have no doubt that Most of our local contemporaries are is usually in a weaker position than seph Sedley type, and I have no doubt that among the youngsters who are at play unundergoing a novel experience. The the creditor, and may well claim some der the tall, leafy trees in the park many renta per month, postage iree. Addresses changed whenever desired.

Persons desirous of organizing clubs

Troy, June 23, 1896.

The der the tall, leafy trees in the park many another gentle little Emmy is losing her on that there is a duty of 25 per cent. The creditor, and may well claim some legal protection, such as the Demo-small heart to some latter day Georgy Oscination creating heart to some latter day Georgy Oscination surprised them by furnishing matter for controversy not creating heart and all-controlled the creditor, and may well claim some legal protection, such as the Demo-small heart to some latter day Georgy Oscination creations and sweating form every pore.

It will soon be time for the Gomez and Maceo death rumors to exchange pulpits.

A soft answer turneth away wrath. but a harsh epithet doesn't answer an argument.

It is hard work for McKinley's overworked figures of speech to remain

The square has changed but little since 2. Yes, edly put their attorneys and friends those days, when the world was verging

The Journal's purpose in fostering in another part of the town I sought out the Junior Republic is not a merely a little house that played a far more imsentimental one. To save every year portant part in the career of the clever litportant part in the career of the clever lit-tle adventuress, and was the scene of one 2. No. two or three hundred children from of the most dramatic incidents in the Now it happens that the axiom that the slums is in itself a kindly action, whole range of English fiction-one that rallroads are natural monopolies is one and one suggested by a more reasoned anks very nearly with that in which Rob-It will be observed that as soon as a of the commonplaces of political econ- kindness than that which finds its ex-the shore of his island home.

Carzon street is situate at the court end pass? 3. How old I must of the town and has changed very little get appliention papers?

New York, July 3, 1896. country as to how its affairs should be and that some form of Government The community at Freeville is an im- since George III. was king and Napoleon's Mr. Comptroller Eckels may possibly Charles Francis Adams, formerly pres-Mr. Comptroner Eckels may possibly succeed in talking himself into the ident of the Union Pacific. Most countries are occupied as instructors in farming, ley, on their return to London, after the presidency of some metropolitan bank- tries carry this regulation to the ex- carpentry and the like, sedulously ab- Waterloo campaign, but I found a house ing institution, but he will not make tent of having at least part of their stain from meddling with the judicial which looks very much like the one shown in a drawing made by Thackeray himself for an early edition of his book. It is a officials. None, so far as we are aware, zens. Mr. W. R. George, who founded officials. None, so far as we are aware, zens. Mr. W. R. George, who founded small house, dull yellow in tone, and with leave them entirely uncontrolled. They the Republic, and who still controls its boxes of growing field daisies resting on The gentleman who is at the head of have more liberty in the United States relation with the outer world, exerts every one of its window ledges. It is easy the B. & O. Railroad has been quick than in any other important country to bolt the Democratic ticket. The condition of this railway property, of the world.

By this time Anne had extricated the fowl from her sister's hair, and presently which he has been one of the managers.

The reasoning of the experts on this to the first impetus which the hand-coronets on their panels and footness. This last is essential to bellight to and from the managers of the size for some time past, is not such as to matter is simple and conclusive. If levers of the ferryboat engineer give powdered heads drive swiftly to and fro, erency under international law. start the entire country to applauding the towns A and Z be connected by a to the eccentric before the steam has his business judgment or his knowl- single railroad which is abundantly begun to do its work. The success of able to handle all the business offered, almost every reformatory of the con- we catch a glimpse of liveried footmen, of RAILROADS AND THEIR RIGHTS. the construction of another line to ventional sort has ended with the death rich furniture and hangings in short, we When the Democratic platform demanded "the enlargement of the powwaste of the resources of the commutmanded the enlargement of the powwaste of the resources of the commutmanded the enlargement of the powwaste of the resources of the commutmanded the enlargement of the powmanded the powmanded the enlargement of t Com- waste of the resources of the commu- George's work at Freeville is done, and whose lives are spent in a search after iness and luxury.

And as I looked at the little house, remembering what had happened there when Rawdon Crawley came home from the sponging house, and found his wife and that men as well in- cure competition, for the two lines, ly learned the lessons of citizenship Steyne together, a remarkably well-appoint- over $100,000,000. ad carriage with an earl's coroner on the editor Journal:

Can liquors and beer be sold on Sunday on a door and a very old man, dressed in the door and a very old man, dressed in the door and a very old man, dressed in the steamer sailing up the Hudson River?

Newark, N. J., July 2. G. B. M. S. are hardly making anything now, and securing and dividing "all the traffic and learn it so well that they in their height of fashion, alighted and was helped that the plank above quoted aims to will bear." It is much better to recogopened before him, and he entered at once Editor Journal: with an air of proprietorship, but nevertheless the carriage remained at the curb awaiting his return, I wondered if he were a modern Steyne, and if there lurked withlu that drawing and if there lurked within that drawing room a Mrs. Rawdon Crawley to "touch" Loan any veteran of the rebellion who him for a card to a dinner at Gaunt, or for a check to enable her to give dinners soldier's license to hawk, vend and peddle? 2. If so, if you please, in what States, and, 3, who has the power of granting said license to the characteristic of the cleent and properly maintain the control of the rebellion who has the power of granting said license to the characteristic of the rebellion who has the power of granting said license to the characteristic of the rebellion who has the power of granting said license to the characteristic of the rebellion who have the characteristic of place that she had carved for herself in the great world of London.

"Gad! I dined with the king yesterday, and we had boiled neck of mutton and turnips," said the real Steyne when the that is an observation-made by one of the greatest "swells" in all English fictionthat I commend to the attention of those who are interested in studying "high life"

The Jester's Chorus.

Wickwire-I see that another policeman has been suspended for sleeping on his watch. -I have been eating and drinking or "So Ethel Westside got her wheel on he "Yes, her pa had to give in. It was 16 to 1, you know. He's silver."-Buffalo Times.

Prudent Mamma-Rosamond, you ought not to permit that young Spoopamore to be so attentive to you. What do you know of him? may be a wholly unworthy young man." Miss Rosemond-I don't care if he committed Miss Resemend-I uon t care in the crime of 1873. He always buys fee cream Editor Journal:

A and B are citizens and residents

A and B are citizens and residents soda .- Chicago Tribune.

Pretty time in the night for you to appear, isn't it? (biff! biff!) I'll teach you! (swat!).

Woman-Oh so you've come in, have you!

Woman-Nice husband, you are! (Bang!) Voice-Ouch! I'm not your husbaud! I'm a Woman (staggering back)—Oh! A burglar! lelp! Oh, what shall I do! Oh! (Faints away.) urglar escapes.—Pearson's Weekly.

"Alas," she mused, as she contemplated her self in the mirror, "there are siready purple threads among the plak." However, age was a thing with which even the poster girl had to grapple. Detroit Tribune.

Some Information for the People.

Knolin.

Editor Journal:
What is the meaning of the word knolin?
L. T.

Silver in Bland-Allison Act.

Editor Journal:

B claims that under the Bland-Allison act of 1878 allver is legal tender for any amount; A says legal tender to the amount of $5 only.
Respectfully,
F. M. VAN WYCK. B is correct. The Largest Standing Army.

New York, July 7. 1. Germany. 2. Twenty years.

Failed, but Can Go Ahead.

under seal, and not renewed by you. Double Standard Without Interna-

How to Get His Money.

Consulate Clerkships.

Why We Don't Recognize Cuba.

hould recognize the Cubans as belligerents. Is, though an ardent sympathizer with the Cubans, is the Cubans are the Cubans and the Cubans and the Cubans are the Cubans and the Cubans. It is the Cubans at the Cubans and the Cubans are the Cubans are the Cubans are the Cubans are the Cubans and the Cubans are the Cubans a

I. It is a question of international law, not reaty. 2. The opinion of President Cleveland that the conditions of the insurgents do not justify him in giving the rights of belligerents, especially, probably, in their lack of a political orificates, national bank notes, subsidiary silver to see. coin above $10.

Gold or Silver Accepted.

Auburn, June 24. Yes, of all denominations. Estimated amount,

Certainly Not. Editor Journal:

Can I get my full citizen's papers? I am twenty-five years of age. I was fifteen years when I came here, but have not taken out my first papers.

Riverdale, June 25.

License to Peddle.

1. Yes. 2. In all cities of all States. 3. The

Editor Journal:

A will is made five years ago and signed by two witnesses. About three weeks ago one of the witnesses dies. The lawyer and one witness are still alive. Is it necessary so as to avoid contesting or to be within the law that a new will be drawn up?

DAILY SUBSCRIBER.

None but Your Father's.

Civil Service Examinations.

(1) Yes. (2) Secretary U. S. Civil Service

Mortgage on Irish Land,

Brooklyn, June 16.

Transfer Holds Good.

No. It Was a Sale,

Close Relations of Boudoir and Box Stall

The horse has a position so well est Oh, the footgear of my seaside girl is dainty tablished in the social scale that no woman A fine variety of clay named after a hill in with the fillies. This kinship the English of the French word filles seems to indicate, The nervous, highly-organized temperament of the mare is as feminine as if the box stall were a bouldir. The trainer knows that, however closely he may have studied that she may wear on the course in the morning and find a few hours after, when he goes into the I have seen her in her evening dress displaystable to prepare for the race, that she has they were still inhabited by substantial, Duty on Old Buttonhole Machine. gone all to pieces. It is a clear case of nerves. This is different from the knowing-Editor Journal:

What duty is on a second-hand Singer buttonhel machine, only the machine thend; sent from Europe?

Troy, June 23, 1896.

Herves. This is different from the knowing.

In have seen her in translucent Swiss, reclinling on the beach, when the spell that hung about us was too

converget for speech.

With the filly, this is not intelligence, but nerves, a tendency to hysteris. It takes all Summer to get a mare's nerves up to the point of backing opinion with money, as a But the matchless Summer maiden that these review of betting books and the great racing events of the turf will show. ample, the 2,000 guinea race at Newmarket and the 1,000 guines race are run in the same week in May. In all its long record the only two filles who have won both races are Crucifix, in 1840, and Pligrimage. In 1878.

The Derby is run shortly after. June 3 was the date this year. The only two filles who have won both the Derby and the Oaks the Oaks, it should be known, is a race for fillies only-were Eleanor, in 1801, and other time of the year. The St. Leger is run in September. This is a race for both colts and fillies. The list of those who have won both the Oaks and St. Leger is words: toward Waterloo, nor has human vanity altered to any appreciable degree. It's just as good stuff to make novels out of now as it was then—if we only know how.

It was then—if we only know how.

In another part of the town I sought out a little house that played a far more important part in the career of the clever little.

How to Get his Money.

Have won both the Oaks and St. Leger is long against the brief record of the Derby.

Among these are Hannah, named for the wife of Lord Rossebery, 1873; Mary Stuart, owned by the Footing parson, who defied this Bishop under the name of Mr. Merry, owned by the Footing parson, who defied this Bishop under the name of Mr. Merry, list it over her head, but don't choke her long the content of the steps! Take words:

"He's near the bottom of the steps! Take words:

"Words:

"Among these are Hannah, named for the wife of Lord Rossebery, 1873; Mary Stuart, owned by the Footing parson, who defied this Bishop under the name of Mr. Merry, list it over her head, but don't choke her long the content of the content of the care. Bob! Don't make so much noise!

"He's near the bottom of the steps! Take words:

"Words:

"Words:

"Words:

"Words:

"You'll wake 'em!"

"Here, Bob, we'll pitch you down a bag.

The it over her head, but don't choke her!

Pointed administrator, deliver certified copy of large the content of the care. Bob! Don't make so much noise!

"He's near the brief record of the Derby.

Among these are Hannah, named for the wife of Lord Rossebery, 1873; Mary Stuart, owned by the Footing parson, who defied the provided and provided berself for the St. Leger in 1893.

In our own country the ladies have disother side of the scuttle. Editor Journal:

1. Whether an examination has to be passed in order to secure a clerkship in the American Consul's office at either Berlin or Farts 7. If so, what the subjects are in which it is necessary to what the subject are in which it is n 1. Yes. 2. Depends on nature of clerkship. 3. Woodford are within all of our memories, ed in pursuit of something, and the girls The Twenty-one or over. 4. Assistant Secretary of The distinguished career of Miss Woodford saw the light move off in another direction. is recalled in the provess of her son, George Kessler, who won the American Stakes but the other day at Gravesend.

Then the girls heand a rushing and scrambling over the roof, and an object came suddenly through the scuttle, and lighted Stakes but the other day at Gravesend. Of course, there are mares who do their on Isabel's head. duty at any cost, just as there are women who control their nerves at all hazards and out my eyes! It's claws are tangled in my > men and women. no need to establish a further parallel.

at four holds the world's record with 2:06.
Nay, more, there is that precoclous child, belsent up words of warning to the accom-Editor Journal:

1. Must internal revenue or import duties be paid in gold? 2. Is any legal tender currency accepted for such payment?

1. No. 2. Any legal tender except currency certificates, national bank notes, subsidiary silver to see.

Think what that means, that steady beat Editor Journal:

Has the Government coined any silver since the repeal of the Sherman law? If so, how much and of what denominations—unit or fractional?

E. J. WALDRON.

Addum, June 24.

"I've discovered why the conductor always nerves, muscles, temper and spirit in harmonious union that makes the great trotter, and then recall the soft, feminine names of the great trotters of the world with has at the sate of the sate of

donable pride.

Some People in Politics.

James J. Martin, who was formerly president of the Police Board, spends most of his time at Tammany Hall. He is chairman of the Executive Committee and one of the few men in the rganization in whom Richard Croker has im- now I fancy I've solved it." rs in politics and a firm believer in practical "It's this way. The conductor, when he sees nethods in order to win battles. Martin was a would-be passenger make a leap for Amssa Thornton, who is one of T. C. Platt's local lieutenants, is worried these days over the fight between Platt and Warner Miller. Thorn. capes sudden death, the conductor rings twice to on is a personal friend of the Herkimer Sage, and he does not like to be opposed to him, but And after a deep his interests are all with the old machine and he anot afford to raise his hand against Platt Of him it can truthfully be said in the present risis: "He stands between love and duty."

The only thing left of the old County De- shirt open at the neck, had painted a and Twenty-fourth wards, of which Colonel as a photograph. colonel in a unique character in New York poll-ries and is one of the "old guard" who fought the battles of democracy half a century ago. his brushes, an aged cow, disastiafied with her About the only time the public ever hears of faithful representation in the picture. very full to indorse the ticket and platform of the colors. County Democracy was called into being to op-pose.

Gazing at the canvas, the latter opened wide

Thomas Costigan is one of the State Democacy leaders who had made peace with "My hoy," he said, "it's the hit of you Cammany Hall. He attended the last State, The felend was a heavy advertiser, and thus Convention at Saratoga as a Wigwam dele- the poster came into being. gate. He had been a contestant at so many conventions and his claim ignored that the mittee on Contested Seats made its report he flashes with the six carat solitaires in her ears. reached for his hat and prepared to leave the The young man spoke. hall, merely as a matter of habit.

tree sliver man will be the next President of the | The girl turned toward him in slow surprise. United States and he has determined to climb on the band wagon in plenty of time, so he has declare in favor of the white metal. O'Brien has always been around when the patronage biting sarcasm, "or you would not say it was was being distributed, and the politicians are impossible." speculating about his chances of being with

Peter F. Meyer is one of the men who, although his name is seldom heard in connection with politics, has considerable to say about "Of the recent discoveries in shaping the policy of Tammany Hall. He is raphy!"—Ernest Graham Dewey. associated with Richard Crocker in the real estate business and was in charge of the arrangements at the famous banquet tendered to Mr. Croker last Spring, when John Reilly per cent on much more than the cost of their right of way and the present cost of duplicating their equipment. In the level country between Chicago and the Missouri River, where the right of mall responsibility for acciraised a sensation by asking Croker how John C. Sheehan had been made leader of Tammany as can be.,

Song of the Seaside's Matchless Maiden.

And the headgear of my seaside girl is marvellous to see; While her morning gown and evening dress and bathing suit and fan Are enough to drive to madness any ordinary the temper, constitution and traits of the That unloose my tightened purse strings and horses under him, he must leave a margin of doubt for the momentary caprices of the mare.

impel me to despair; it is not her dainty gauntlets (though I've captured one of those),

He may take her out for a breezy run But the dainty Summer maiden that these dainty things enclose.

> ing modest charms, I have seen her in her bathing suit, in Neptune's sportive arms,

But 'twas not the dotted muslin, nor the dotless duck she wore,

Nor the jaunty bathing dress in which she matchless things enclose. ALBERT B. PAINE. A Midnight Alarm.

NNE, oh,
Anne, listen!"
Miss Jennings uttered the words in hourse, terrified whisper. "What's the matter?" asked

The frightened girls saw the light from a lantern. The men who held it were on the

"You'll wake 'em up, stupid, and we'll be

"Anne, oh, Anne, help me! It'll scratch fulfil their appointed tasks. Firenze has been such a little lady, and she was rewarded by the falthful friendship of many mon red course and course to the course of the "Please, Missus," cried a voice from men and women.

A young girl is a human colt. There is

Do need to see the column of t

The pneumatic tire has inaugurated a got through your skylight? By this time Anne had extricated the

The Mystery Solved.

"Why, of course," said the fat man, after he had got his breath, which had gone astroly tive Committee and one of the few men in the been studying on this thing a good deal, and "Well, what does the double ring mean?"

given his first start by John Kelly, and was an pulls the bell once. Do you know why that is?"

Important factor before Mr. Croker became chief

"To stop the car, of course." "Not a bit of it. That's an ambulance callfoo "You surprise me

"Fact, though. Then, when the passenger exlicate that the ambulance call is off. Sea? And after a deep silence the fat man came to The Origin of a Current Fad. A young artist whose tendency tow nir effects was so strong that he always were his nocracy is the organization in the Twenty-third that, for fidelity to nature, was almost as good James J. Mooney, is the leading figure. The It was a thing any one could admire, which the colonel's organization is when it assembles her tail across the canvas, utterly commingling Tainmany Hall, the organization which the The artist was about to commit suicide when his eyes. Then he placed his hand solemuly on the artist's shoulder.

Not Posted Enough for Her, They were standing by the open window. The experience of having a clear title to a seat was a new one for him, and when the Com-

Ex-Sheriff James O'Brien has decided that a said. "Tell me that you love me in return."

"Do you not know?" she asked.
"Would that I could look into your heart!" had his organization, known as the "Jim-obtiens," otherwise the "Young Democracy," Her ilp curied with scorn. "You are behind the times," she said, with

> "Evidently"-She handed him his hat and commenced to tle

"You have not read"

She rang the bell for the butler "Of the recent discoveries in cathode photog-Quite Generally Worn Now.

The late turn of the conversation suggests that thorns to avoid confusion. Times Have Changed, [Detroit Tribune.] It now appears that a blank cartridge of the few things that will not precipitate constitutional crisis in France.